

standards and controls for in-vitro diagnostic drug testing systems.

DEA has considered the factors in Title 21, United States Code, Section 823(a) and determined that the registration of Ansys Diagnostics, Inc. to manufacture the listed controlled substances is consistent with the public interest at this time. Therefore, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. 823 and 28 CFR 0.100 and 0.104, the Deputy Assistant Administrator, Office of Diversion Control, hereby orders that the application submitted by the above firm for registration as a bulk manufacturer of the basic classes of controlled substances listed above is granted.

Dated: April 3, 1998.

John H. King,

Deputy Assistant Administrator, Office of Diversion Control, Drug Enforcement Administration.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Office of Justice Programs

Bureau of Justice Statistics; Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice of Information Collection Under Review; Revision of a Currently Approved Collection; The Annual Survey of Jails, Forms CJ-5, CJ-5A, CJ-5B.

Office of Management and Budget approval is being sought for the information collection listed below. This collection was previously published in the Federal Register on February 27, 1998, allowing for a 60-day public comment period. No substantive comments were received by the Bureau of Justice Statistics or the Justice Management Division.

The purpose of this notice is to allow an additional 30 days for public comments. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted until May 14, 1998. This process is conducted in accordance with 5 CFR 3120.10-.

Written comments and/or suggestions regarding the items contained in this notice, especially regarding the estimated public burden and associated response time, should be directed to OMB, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Attention: Dennis Marvich, (202) 395-3122, Department of Justice Desk Officer, Washington, DC 20503, by May 1, 1998. You may also submit comments to Mr. Boyd via facsimile and (202) 395-7285. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) evaluate the accuracy of the agencies estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) enhanced the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of Information Collection: Revision of a currently approved collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Annual Survey of Jails.

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: Forms CJ-5, CJ-5A, CJ-5B. Bureau of Justice Statistics, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: County and City jail authorities and Tribal authorities. The "Annual Survey of Jails" (ASJ) is the only collection effort that provides an ability to maintain important jail statistics in years between the jail censuses. The AJS enables the Bureau; Federal, State, and local correctional administrators; legislators; researchers; and planners to track growth in the number of jails and their capacities nationally; as well as, track changes in the demographics and supervision status of the jail population and the prevalence of crowding.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: 900 respondents at .75 hours per response.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: Total annual burden hours are 1,125.

If you have additional comments, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions, or additional information, please contact Allen J. Beck, Ph.D., Chief, Corrections Statistics Program, Bureau of Justice Statistics, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice, 810 Seventh Street, NW., Washington, DC 20531 (202-616-3277).

If additional information is required contact Robert B. Briggs, Department Clearance Officer, U.S. Department of Justice, Information Management and Security Staff, Justice Management Division, Suite 850, Washington Center, 1001 G Street, NW., Washington, DC 20530.

Dated: April 9, 1998.
